

California Primary 2022 Election Results

Now that California's Primary Election has come to an end, we thought it would be important to share the election results. Below, you'll find a report on the key races that we have been closely monitoring for the past several months.

For all the races below, the top two candidates will advance to the general election in November.

AHC will continue in our role with planning and organizing multitiered civic engagement activities and outreach starting in late summer right up until the election to educate our internal staff, community partners, and other stakeholders. Engagement activities include:

- Putting together a webpage to house accessible:
 - o Multilingual information packets
 - o Important dates
 - o Registration information
 - o Helpful videos
- Social media campaigns
- Advocacy 101 Train the Trainer sessions with our Health Centers
